Eleanor, to Arthur Hobson Gale. The ceremony will be performed in early October.

Here to Take Up New Work.

Miss Helen Beardsley has returned to the city, after an extended stay in Michigan. Miss Beardsley is here to take up the work with the new Travelers' Aid Society.

Interesting Engagement.

An engagement of interest announced last week was that of Mrs. Louise Halsey Stearns, daughter of J. Morton Halsey, of Virginia, to Dr. Charles C. Page, of Orange. The wedding will take place early in November. Mrs. Stearns, who has spent much time in Baltimore during the last few years, is now occupying apartments at the Albion. Dr. Page is a cousin of Dr. Robert C. Brown, of Richmond, whose marriage to Miss Grace Hamilton will take place in October.

Entertained in Roanoke.

With charming informality, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Huntley entertained at two hundred last week at their home, in Roanoke, in honor of Mrs. Walter W. Sanders, of Jacksonville, Fla.

The tables were prettily decorated with potted plants and large vases of scarlet sage.

Five tables of five hundred engaged in a progressive game, and the evening was kept on hand-painted cards. With Mrs. Webster Whitten, of Richmond, as accompanist, Mrs. Robert Hatcher and Mrs. M. S. Jenkins sang a number of songs.

Mrs. Jenkins, who possesses a lovely lyric soprano voice, delighted the guests with selections.

Those enjoying Mr. and Mrs. Huntley's hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Huntley, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Williams, Mrs. T. J. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hatcher, Mr. and Mrs. W. Daniel, Mrs. W. W. Sanders, Mrs. Webster Whitten, of Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. Morey, and Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Muse.

Thompson-Jefferys.

Mr. and Mrs. Jefferys, of Keyville, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Luella, to Jay Thurman Thompson, both of Keyville. The wedding will take place in October.

At Castle Hill.

The many guests at Castle Hill Hotel are enjoying the mountain breezes and lovely views from the spacious porches, playing golf on the adjoining golf links and fishing in North River, Natural Bridge, Goshen Pass, Rockbridge Baths and Rockbridge Alum Springs are within easy reach and attract many motoring and driving parties from the hotel.

A delightful card party in the hotel parlors was much enjoyed by the guests Tuesday night. Prizes were awarded to the women and men receiving the highest scores.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, VA., September 5.—Quite fitting as a brilliant occasion for the summer season was the play on Friday evening, the entire week preceding having been given over to preparations and rehearsals. Mrs. Otis Skinner, who, with her noted husband, spent that time here, and at that time gave a very successful play, was the happy originator of the idea which was so beautifully carried out in verse by Mrs. Harris, of Louisville.

Mrs. Skinner has been on the stage herself, and with her artistic conception and the assistance of Mr. Skinner and Mrs. Harris, this play—"The Mosque of Romance"—was charmingly rendered. It was to have been given on the lawn under the maple trees, but continued rains prevented, and the hall-room was used, and the play was arranged as a woodland, with branches and young trees of hemlock and pine, and at one side was a rustic spring, symbolizing the magic "Warm Springs."

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Skinner gave a dinner party on Friday evening in honor of Miss Mary Johnston.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Woodward, of Louisville, and Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Woodward, of Louisville, were in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Donald McDonald, of Louisville, on Friday evening.

The same evening Mrs. Edward Avery McHenry, of Avery Island, La., gave a dinner party, at which she and her guests repaired to the ball room to witness the play. Those of her party were Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Bright, of New Orleans; Mr. and Mrs. Archie McCrea, of New York; Glen- denia, of New York; Mr. Perry, Virginia; Charles Richmond, Davis, New York; Miss McDonald, Louisville.

On Wednesday evening Dr. J. Henning Nelson gave a delightful lecture on "Isaac and Rebekah."

Miss Mary Thomas Pickens, of Greenville, Ala., entertained on Thursday morning at a fruit party in honor of Mrs. George Hayward, of St. Louis, who, since her arrival at Warin Springs this summer, has celebrated her eighty-seventh birthday.

Miss Gertrude Widmer, of New York, gave a party on Monday evening at the Casino. Those present were: Misses Jessie Adams, Marie McDonald, Corinne McDonald, Adele Blanc, Mr. and Mrs. Credo Harris, Mrs. Rodney Cohen, August McDonald, George Duncan, E. C. Davidson, William Falligant, Latta Law, and Miss Marie Witty.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald McDonald, of Louisville, gave a luncheon on Sunday at the "Oaks."

Mrs. Mrs. Otis Skinner gave a mint julep party at the Casino on Thursday evening.

Mrs. C. H. Huntley, of Richmond, entertained on Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock tea in honor of Mrs. P. Hudson Rich, of Philadelphia.

WHITE SULPHUR

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, VA., September 5.—The Casino and the golf club were the scenes of two "dinner-dance" this week, following the presentation of cups won in tournaments.

The new eighteen-hole course at the Greenbrier Golf Club has been in constant use by the early arrivals, who have come in for the fall season, and nearly all those who have recently arrived at the club were among the 100 players who participated in the annual handicap medal play tournament for the John P. Branch cups.

Mrs. Thomas B. Paine, of Atlanta, runner up in the spring for the Southern championship, and James Huntley, of Norfolk, other winners of prizes offered by Mr. Branch, who has been spending his summer here in the cottage colony for over sixty years, included Mrs. George G. McHenry, Jr., of New York; Mr. Thomas, of Charleston, and V. C. Cunningham, of Greensboro.

Following a personal presentation of the cups and prizes by Mr. Branch, there was a "dinner-dance" on the broad piazzas and lawns of the Casino. Miss Edith Branch and Miss Eugene Fox, of Boston, presided.

The Misses Anne O'Brien, of New York; Sarah Hamilton, of Petersburg, and Rena Dorris, of Arizona, and the Misses L. B. and M. J. McHenry, of New York, won the cups in the annual August tennis tournament at the Casino, and were the guests of honor at the "dinner-dance" on Monday afternoon at the Casino, following a formal presentation of the cups.

William Gunley, tennis professional at the Essex Country Club, Manchester, Mass., during the summer season, who has charge of the Casino and arranges the tournaments during the spring and fall seasons for the Greenbrier Tennis Club, will arrive here next week to assume charge, when formal announcements will be made of the events scheduled at the Casino for the fall season now on.

Those arriving during the coming fortnight from Bar Harbor, Newport, Southampton and Lenox.

The fall season promises to eclipse that of last year, when every suite in the Greenbrier was occupied until late in November. A number who have already arrived plan to remain until Thanksgiving, although the New York stores and the opera will call back a few to town before.

Mrs. John W. Gates, who spent the spring season here in a private car, and has at the New Greenbrier, with her Mrs. E. F. Williams, Mrs. A. H. Williams, and A. L. Humes, all of whom are taking the "Kum."
